Part St. George, April 2, 1924 (G. O. No. 519, P.K.).

No. 463.—In G.O. No. 827, P.H., dated 17th May 1923, the Government sanctioned the constitution of a separate cadre of health officers and the following consolidated rates of pay to these officers:—

	Consolidated rate of pay per mensem.
(1) First-class Health officers .. .. .	250—25—450—25—450 (Efficiency bar at Rs. 450.)
(2) Second-class Health officers .. .. .	200—10—350 (Efficiency bar at Rs. 350.)

They also stated that these scales of pay would be applicable to district health officers and to municipal health officers who were or might thereafter be included in the Government cadre and that separate orders would issue regarding the initial pay of municipal health officers.

2. The appointments of municipal health officers now included in the Provincial cadre, the present incumbents of these appointments and their initial pay as fixed by the Government in the new scale of pay referred to in paragraph 1 above are shown in the list appended to this order which will take effect from 1st April 1924.

3. In paragraph 2 of G.O. No. 493, Finance, dated 11th May 1921, the Government observed that they were prepared to continue to pay a share of the cost of the service of municipal health officers, but that the precise proportion would be determined with reference to the contributions to the cost of other services. They have now carefully considered the question and have decided to continue to bear three-fourths of the cost of these health officers. As the existing 11 health officers and those who will in future be appointed by the other municipal councils, will form part of the Provincial cadre, their whole pay will be paid in the first instance from Provincial funds and 25 per cent of the average cost of the posts together with the proportionate leave and pensionary contribution will be recovered monthly from the municipal councils. The Assistant-Comptroller is requested to give effect to these proposals at an early date.

No. 183.—Under the Traffic Manual rules, it is obligatory on railway stationmasters to register domestic occurrences in their jurisdiction and submit periodical returns. The Agent, Scott India Railway, now queries whether these returns may be sent through post without a postage stamp or whether the Government will arrange to supply the stationmasters with service postage stamps. The Government consider that the periodical returns need not be sent through post.

2. According to the instructions under statement No. 19 on page 25 of the Manual of Village Accounts, village officers are required to submit to the Tahsildar, on the 1st of every month, abstracts of births and deaths in the preceding month for each village excluding the statistics pertaining to railway limits. Under rule 11 of the rules issued with G.O. No. 1269, P.H., dated 6th October 1931, chairmen of municipal councils are also required to submit to the Director of Public Health and the Registrar-General of Births and Deaths separate returns for municipal areas. The Government consider that separate periodical returns for railway limits are unnecessary, but that they should be incorporated in the returns submitted by village officers and chairmen of municipal councils.

3. The Government direct that, for this purpose, village officers should arrange to receive on the 1st day of every month the returns relating to railway limits from the railway stationmasters and incorporate them in the lists to be submitted by them to the Tahsildars. As regards railway stations which are situated within municipal limits, the Government consider that chairmen of municipal councils should similarly make the necessary arrangements for receiving from the railway stationmasters in proper time the returns relating to railway limits and incorporate them in the returns to be submitted by them under rule 11 of the rules issued with G.O. No. 1269, P.H., dated 6th October 1931.

4. Separate orders will issue in the Revenue Department regarding the instructions to be issued to the village officers and the amendments to be made in the Manual of Village Accounts.

Fort St. George, April 13, 1934 (S.O. No. 183, P.H.).

No. 185.—The Government consider that a uniform procedure should be followed in regard to the engagement and payment of fees to pleaders employed by local bodies to conduct their cases. The maximum amount ordinarily payable will accordingly be fixed as shown in the appendix.

2. Special arrangements may be made with the sanction of Government in cases of unusual magnitude or difficulty or in cases where the prescribed fee is, in the opinion of the local body, too low for the trouble involved. The fee recommended in such cases should be graduated with due regard to the difficulties and importance of the case.

3. In all cases the <sup>Chairman</sup> ~~President~~ should enter into agreements beforehand with the pleaders engaged to conduct the cases.

4. The appended notification will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

CULTIVATION STATEMENT—APRIL 1904 TO FEBRUARY 1905.

[On an average of the five years ending 1903-04, the area reported on crops in February represents only 1 per cent on dry lands and 4 per cent on wet lands, the corresponding figures for the period April to February being 45 per cent on dry lands and 60 per cent on wet lands.]

Cereals.—There were some local showers in Goulburn and Wingecarribee about the middle of February. Everywhere the month was practically rainless. The water supply was deficient in the main river systems but increased on the West Coast and in the Derwent and its parts of the Curlew and Central districts, Maitland, and Tamworth. Barley crop fairly was transplanted in the Goulburn and Maitland districts, Maitland, South Coast, Trimbuckly, and Tamworth. Some wheat was sown in Goulburn, Wingecarribee, Coddagah, Beller, South Coast, and parts of the central districts and the majority in the Goulburn, Coddagah, South Coast, and Curlew.

5. Drylands.—The area sown in February 1904 was below the average and last year. The reduction was fairly general except in Goulburn, South Coast, Trimbuckly and the south.

The area sown from April 1903 to February 1904 in the Derwent was restricted by about 8 per cent. Sowings in Goulburn exceeded the average and last year by more than 25 per cent. They were satisfactory in Maitland, Beller, and Curlew, while they were much restricted in Maitland and Maitland and the central and southern districts except Maitland.

8. Wet lands.—Sowings in February 1904 were restricted in the Curlew and Central districts except Trimbuckly.

The area sown from April 1903 to February 1904 was less than the area last year by three per cent, though it exceeded the average by two per cent. Sowings were satisfactory in the Curlew and Maitland but restricted in Maitland and the central districts. The reduction in area amounted to 70 per cent in Maitland, South Coast, and Maitland.

CHAPTER VIII.

"53. Every village named and every panchayat court exercising civil jurisdiction under the Madras Village Courts Act, 1933, in the village on the date of publication of a notification under section 49 shall cease to exercise such jurisdiction in such village after such date; and all suits pending in such courts on such date shall be deemed to be instituted before and all decrees passed by such courts before such date may be executed by the panchayat declared by the notification to be the panchayat court for the village, and

Every panchayat court exercising criminal jurisdiction in each village shall, on the publication of a notification under section 55, likewise cease to exercise such jurisdiction in each village after such date; and all criminal proceedings pending in such courts on such date shall be deemed to have been instituted before and all sentences passed by such courts before such date may be executed by the panchayat empowered by the notification."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The main object of the Bill is to enable a panchayat constituted for a village under the Madras Village Panchayat Act, 1920, to exercise the functions of a panchayat court in respect of such village under the Madras Village Courts Act, 1888. It is unnecessary to have two different panchayats in any village—one for managing the local affairs of the village and the other for trying suits, etc. The multiplication of statutory authorities in a small territorial unit like the village is undesirable. Several of the panchayats formed under the Madras Village Panchayat Act, 1920, have asked that they should be given judicial powers also. The Royal Commission on Decentralisation recommended and the Government of India tried such a combination and is wary of the other Provinces in India a single panchayat exercise both the judicial and the administrative functions in respect of the village entrusted to it.

It is proposed that the headman of the village, or if there be more than one headman, the senior headman according to length of service shall ex officio be a member of the village panchayat, but that if he is elected as president his presidentialty shall be limited to three years from the date of such election.

The Bill also provides for meeting to the panchayat fund all penalties, fines, fees or costs levied by panchayat courts.

The Act as it now stands does not authorize the prescription of penalties for breach of any by-law or rule framed under it. Provision has now been made for this in clauses 5 and 6.

The other amendments proposed are minor or are consequential.

15th April 1924.

NOTES ON CLAUSES

Clause 2.—It is proposed that the headman of the village, or the senior headman if there be more than one headman, shall be an ex officio member of the Village Panchayat as his presence will be useful.

Clause 3 to 5.—The changes proposed are verbal and consequential.

Clause 6.—This supplies an omission in the present Act, which does not authorize the levy of a penalty for breach of a by-law.

Clause 7.—This is self-explanatory.

Clause 8.—There is no provision in the present Act for imposing a penalty for breach of a rule. This clause supplies the omission.

Clause 9.—This carries out the main object of the Bill, namely, to confer judicial powers on the Village Panchayats constituted under the Madras Village Panchayat Act, 1920, where desirable.
